ABOUT US

Minority Health Film Festival

Inspired by health-related conversations happening across the nation, the Minority Health Film Festival was created to extend those conversations in Milwaukee communities. The first of its kind in the country, this four-day event features unique film selections, community forums, and an interactive health fair, all related to information about the health statuses of racial-ethnic minority populations.

MILWAUKEE FILM

Milwaukee Film is a nonprofit arts organization dedicated to entertaining, educating, and engaging our community through cinematic experiences, with a vision to make Milwaukee a center for film culture. Milwaukee Film operates the magnificent Oriental Theatre, a historic cinema palace committed to high quality and accessible film and education programming. The 11th annual Milwaukee Film Festival will take place Oct. 17-31, 2019.

FEATURED SPEAKERS

Charlamagne tha God

Best known for being a co-host of the nationally syndicated hip-hop iHeartRadio program "The Breakfast Club," Charlamagne tha God is a leading public advocate for mental health awareness. The New York Times bestselling author uses his platform as a social media influencer and popular podcaster ("Brilliant Idiots") to discuss his mental health struggles, particularly anxiety, which he addresses in his 2018 book Shook One: Anxiety Playing Tricks on Me (Simon & Schuster).

Health Perspectives Noon Opening Panel

A panel of local medical practitioners discussing different perspectives on social determinants of health.

Let's Talk Mental Health

A Conversation with Charlamagne tha God

The opening panel discussion begins at noon, followed by Charlamagne at 1 p.m. at Turner Hall Ballroom (1040 Vel R. Phillips Ave.) on Thursday, Sept. 12

Styles P

Whether a part of acclaimed rap trio The LOX or as a solo artist, Styles' (aka David Styles) razor-sharp slick talk has created a cult-like following within the hip-hop and "gangsta" rap community. Looking to balance to his fast-paced rapper lifestyle, Styles began supplementing his diet with juicing 10 years ago. Co-owner of Juices for Life, a New York-based juice bar that serves up natural and healthy beverages, Styles is fully committed to the health and wellness movement, making it his mission to promote the benefits of juicing to communities of color.

Mind & Body

Conversations with STYLES P

Styles P appears as a part of the "The Art of Mental Health" and "Juicing For Life" resource fair panels.

Check the forums schedule on PG. 4 for dates and times.

Harriet Washington

An award-winning medical writer, medical ethicist, and the author of the best-selling book, Medical Apartheid: The Dark History of Medical Experimentation on Black Americans from Colonial Times to the Present, Harriet Washington deconstructs the politics around medical issues. Painting a compelling and disturbing portrait of medicine, race, sex, and the abuse of power by telling individual human stories, Washington's work examines the historical effects of "scientific racism" on African American health issues, making a case for broader political consciousness of science and technology.

Legacies of Mistrust

A Conversation with Harriet Washington

Harriet Washington appears as a part of the "Legacies of Mistrust" event on Sunday, Sept. 15 at 6 p.m. in the UWM Union Ballroom (2200 E. Kenwood Blvd.).

Tickets can be purchased at mkefilm.org/mhff
