MILWAUKEE FILM

MISSION:

Create world class cinematic experiences that convene our diverse communities and catalyze positive change in Milwaukee.

VISION:

Become the most dynamic, well rounded film culture institution in America.

VOLUNTEER CODE OF CONDUCT

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT FROM US:

- To treat all volunteers with dignity and respect.
- To provide training and direction when needed.
- To provide a safe atmosphere in which to volunteer.
- To recognize your contributions as a volunteer to the success of the organization.

WHAT WE EXPECT FROM YOU:

- To act courteously and appropriately to Milwaukee Film patrons, fellow volunteers, sponsors, and Milwaukee Film staff members.
- To accept guidance and instruction from Milwaukee Film staff and theater managers.
- To report to your scheduled shift on time and to stay for your entire shift.
- To contact the Volunteer Coordinator immediately if you are unable to be present at your scheduled shift or if you cannot arrive on time.
- To wear your volunteer t-shirt (when appropriate) and to appear presentable for your shift.
- To perform the volunteer duties to which you are assigned to the best of your ability and in a professional manner.
- To not consume alcohol or drugs while on a shift and to not report for duty while under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

NOTE: While we appreciate the time our volunteers donate to Milwaukee Film, reported negative behaviors, including missed shifts, will be investigated. Depending on severity and frequency, such behaviors could result in the termination of the volunteer's position with us. Milwaukee Film considers our volunteers to be an integral part of our team and relies on them to follow through on their commitment.

VOLUNTEER ROLES

There are a variety of jobs volunteers can do during the festival. Because you sign up for your own shifts, it is important that you know each of the various roles you could choose from. From taking tickets to guiding patrons to their seats, there is a role for everyone!

THEATER OPERATIONS

Line Wrangler: Do you like to use your outside voice and direct people where to go? If so, this position was made for you. Line wranglers need to be loud and clear, communicating with patrons about where they need to be and how to get there. Sometimes, we have long lines outside theaters, and we want to make sure people are standing in the correct line and that they have picked up their tickets. These shifts involve being outdoors at times, so be sure to dress for the weather.

Theater Team: Our theater team assists patrons with entering and leaving the theater. You will show patrons their way around the theater to the screenings, scanning tickets and passes, distribute ballots, count ballots, and help theater managers with any needs.

PUBLIC FORUMS (PANELS)

Public Forums Volunteer: Similarly to how a theater team guides patrons into a theater, our public forum assistants help guide patrons into our panel space. Public Forums take place at the UWM Peck School of the Arts Kenilworth Building (around the corner from the Oriental Theatre, in the first floor screening room. Once patrons and guests are seated, the volunteer can relax and enjoy the forum as well.

TIMECOUNTS

Timecounts.org is the scheduling system used for volunteers to sign up for and keep track of shifts. In order to get credit for your shifts, and in order for your hours to count, you must pick up your shifts on the calendar. You cannot just show up to a shift. The amount of volunteers needed at each location is carefully calculated to ensure the right amount of coverage.

If you are having difficulty with Timecounts.org, please contact us, and we will help you get into your shifts.

WHAT TO DO DURING A SHIFT

ARRIVING TO A SHIFT:

- Arrive on time, preferably a few minutes before the start of your shift.
- Check in with the Assistant Theater Manager (ATM).
 - Receive your specific assigned role.
 - Ask the ATM about films that are showing.

DURING YOUR SHIFT:

- Make sure you are wearing your volunteer t-shirt.
 - When attending the Festival as a patron, please don't wear your volunteer t-shirt.
- Be flexible with the job(s) you are assigned; the Theater Manager may need you in a different place depending on what is happening at the venue.

AT THE END OF YOUR SHIFT:

- Wait to be released by the ATM.
 - Do not leave early. Make sure that when you sign up for a shift, you can stay for the entire duration of it.
- Upon being released, you will receive a voucher for all of your hard work!

WATCHING FILMS DURING A SHIFT

Milwaukee Film allows volunteers to watch films showing during their shifts. While we are happy to extend this privilege to our volunteers, we request that a few guidelines be followed:

A VOLUNTEER CAN WATCH A FILM IF...

- The film is not on Standby.
- They are not standing in the back of the theater.
- They sit in the back row of the theater near the exit.
- They can be there from the start of the film through the end of the film. Please do not enter or leave a theater partway through the film.
- They leave the theater to collect ballots and resume volunteer duties as soon as the film has finished.

- They are not working at a busy theater where many duties must be completed while films are screening. The Oriental Theatre is usually too busy for volunteers to watch films during their shifts because it is the “hub” of the Festival.
- The Theater Manager does not need volunteers to help with other tasks.

The Theater Manager and the Assistant Theater Manager will always have the final say as to whether volunteers can watch films during a particular shift. If a film is on Standby volunteers (as well as staff and patrons) must refrain from standing in the back of the theater due to fire codes.

If there is a film you really wish to see, do not expect to be able to watch it during a shift. Instead, volunteer the day before and exchange a voucher for a ticket to that film!

If you have any questions or concerns regarding watching films during your shift, do not hesitate to reach out to the Volunteer Coordinator.
